

We are pleased to present the ninth volume of the George Mason Working Papers in Linguistics. The papers in this volume are works in progress submitted by George Mason University students and reviewed by the editors of GMU Working Papers in Linguistics.

Special thanks are due to Steven Weinberger and Tel Monks for their assistance with this volume and for their valuable guidance and support during the writing of the works herein.

We would also like to thank all students who submitted to this volume for their general interest in the field of linguistics and their willingness to share what they have learned with others. Finally, we are grateful to the College of Humanities and Social Sciences for the funding of this project.
