

The Upper Class Competition

Information for Judges

Thank you for volunteering to serve as a judge for the GMUSL Upper Class Competition on November 10, 2007. The Upper Class Competition provides second, third, and fourth year students at our law school the opportunity to compete in an appellate advocacy competition and is one of the most important competitions that the GMUSL Moot Court Board sponsors. This year over thirty teams will participate.

The final round for the UCC will be held at the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia on November 16, 2007 at 5:00pm. This year the Moot Court Board is privileged to have three respected jurists serve on the UCC final panel: Judge Liam O'Grady, of the Eastern District of Virginia and alum of GMUSL and Judge Stephen H. Glickman of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals. If you are able to attend, we would love to have you.

If you have any questions regarding the day of the competition, or if we can be of assistance in any way, please contact us at mootct@gmu.edu, or call the Moot Court Board office at (703) 993-8158. We look forward to seeing you on the 10th.

Sincerely,

Liz Bradshaw
